Speaker:

Helene van Rossum

Title of Presentation:

The Women's College Club of Princeton Makes History

Our speaker, Helene van Rossum, will present the interactive exhibit of the 110-year history of the Women's College Club of Princeton that she had created for the club website homepage. The presentation includes photos, newspapers clippings she had digitized from various archives, as well as fascinating stories of the founding members, some of whom were suffragettes.

Helene is a Dutch-born archivist and historical researcher with a MA in history and postgraduate diploma in Archive Studies at the University of London.

She worked as an archivist at Princeton University Mudd Manuscript Library, the Curtis Institute of Music at Philadelphia, and at Rutgers University Special Collections and University Archives.
